

THE MEMPHIS APPEAL.

ESTABLISHED 1840.

MEMPHIS, TENN., THURSDAY, MARCH 18, 1886.

VOL. XLVI--NO. 66.

The cowardly, brutal and bloody murder of thirteen negroes at a point near Grenada, is an outrage that should be punished as the law demands, if it takes every law-abiding man in Mississippi to accomplish it.

The telephone suits are to be brought in Columbus, O., the home of Judge Thurman, "Old Bandana," who represents the government.

Every workingman especially should read "A Chapter in History," from the New York Indicator. It will be found on another page among the matter relating to strikes.

No wonder church disestablishment is a burning question in Wales. A majority of the people, who are Methodists and opposed to Episcopacy, are forced to pay tithes to support English bishops, rectors and curates, who, as the cable tells us, have no sympathies with them and cannot even speak Welsh.

The people of the three kingdoms and the principality of Wales are likely at last to come to their own by breaking down caste and privilege. The Irish Nationalists and the English, Scotch and Welsh Democrats in the House of Commons are making common cause, the latter being convinced that to triumph over the aristocracy and secure the needed reforms they must stand by the Nationalists in their demand for home rule for Ireland. United they stand, divided they fall.

The disestablishment of the Welsh Church failed in the English House of Commons last week by 12 votes, only 48 Irish members being present. Had all of these latter been in their seats, it would have been carried by thirty or more votes. But this falling vote was enough to spread consternation in high and low Conservative circles. Even the most "stupid" Tories are beginning to recognize the danger of having eighty-six Irish members supporting every radical move for the destruction of privilege.

JAMES O'KELLY, an experienced journalist, formerly of the staff of the New York Herald, but now a Nationalist member of Parliament, says, in a "special" to that paper, that a member of the Tory party said to him recently: "I will vote for home rule; I will thirty other Conservatives. We feel the hostility toward Ireland was a great blunder. The result will be we'll lose the House of Lords and the church, and we won't save the union." These views represent the growing feeling among the reasonable element of the Tory party. They will let the Irish go in the hope of saving their caste and their privileges. But even this will not save them. The English, Scotch and Welsh Radicals are fixed and unalterable in their sensible purpose to bring government down to a practical and a business basis.

The New York Tribune regards Mr. Parnell, the Irish nationalist leader, as surpassing in usefulness and popularity either Grattan or O'Connell. "A Protestant and a graduate of the University of Cambridge, speaking classical English without a trace of brogue, he is the hero of Catholic Ireland and is trusted and liked because he is a Protestant and has risen above the trammels of prejudice. His characteristic traits are English rather than Irish; his phlegmatic temperament, his inflexible will, his tireless vigilance and perseverance and his contempt for hostile criticism; he lacks oratory, humor, a sympathetic face, a commanding presence—everything which the great Irish agitators have possessed; and yet he succeeded in establishing an absolute political dictatorship throughout Ireland. A landlord himself, he is the uncrowned king of the peasantry." He is true to his convictions of truth and justice and right, and he believes in liberty and in nationhood. This it is that makes Parnell all powerful in Ireland, that makes him a remarkable personality in one of the greatest assemblies in the world, and fixes the attention of men upon him as it has been on Castelar in Spain and was on Gambetta in France.

The vicissitudes of Irish politics are well illustrated by the fact that one of the present members of Parliament, Kevin Izod O'Doherty, a 48 man, was sent in chains to Van Diemen's Land as a convict. He received in 1836 the pardon for which he had never condescended to ask. He settled in Queensland, practiced his profession—that of a physician—and rose to great distinction. He did not give up politics, but became a member of the Lower Chamber and afterward of the Australian Senate. Last year he returned to Ireland and was induced to remain and once more engage in national politics. "Come, O'Doherty," said an Irish member to him Thursday as he took his seat, "don't be too proud of your penal servitude. O'Brien, who sits next to you, was sentenced to death." This was in allusion to James Francis Xavier O'Brien, the Nationalist who was convicted of treason at Cork in 1867, and sentenced, according to the ancient formula, to be hanged, drawn and quartered. This sentence was afterward commuted to penal servitude, and O'Brien was finally released with others. Contrast this with our treatment of Mr. Jeff Davis, who is still an alien in his own land.

THE HOT SPRINGS BATHS.

CONDUCT OF AFFAIRS AT THE RESERVATION.

Southern Postal Changes—Redemption of the Trade Dollar—Southern Private Claims.

(SPECIAL TO THE APPEAL.)
WASHINGTON, March 17.—Gen. W. J. Walsh, mayor of Hot Springs, Ark., is in the city. He called upon the President this morning, and gave him a general idea of the conduct of matters at that reservation. He is a strong advocate of Gen. Field's superintendency of the place, and says: "He is the best man the government ever had there." He extended Mr. Cleveland an invitation to visit the Springs. Gen. Walsh's mission here is to appear before the Committee on Public Lands of the Senate to protest against permission being given the bath-houses to remove without the reservation. He says it will not only ruin the city but that the transporting of the waters without the reserve will deprive them of their medicinal qualities.

THE PUBLIC PRINTER.
The President recently stated positively that he had no intention of naming a successor to Public Printer Boudie before the expiration of the latter's term of office. Mr. Boudie's term will expire April 11 next.

New offices established: At Wiley, Madison county, Ala., Wiley Bates, postmaster; Carney's Bluff, Clarke county, Ala., Wm. T. Dent, postmaster; County Line, Pike county, Ala., Thos. A. Bell, postmaster.

THE TRADE MARK SUIT.
It has been finally settled that the government's suit against the Bell Telephone Company, to test the validity of its patents, shall be brought at Columbus, O., and the United States Attorney for that district has been instructed accordingly. The bill is completed, and will be filed to-morrow or the next day. Judge Thurman of special counsel is now at Columbus, and has perfected all necessary arrangements at that point.

Voluntarily Resigned.
WASHINGTON, March 17.—Exra W. Clark, Chief of the Revenue Marine Division of the Treasury Department, has voluntarily tendered his resignation, in order to engage in private business in New York City. It is to take effect at once.

Trade Dollars.
WASHINGTON, March 17.—The House Committee on Coinage, Weights and Measures to-day considered a proposition looking to the redemption of the trade dollar. A tie vote resulted in a motion to redeem the trade dollar in subsidiary coin instead of standard dollars. The anti-silver men arrived at a proposition to have the amount of trade dollars to come out of the monthly bullion we purchase. Several members of the committee were absent, however, and the whole subject was finally deferred until a future meeting.

Southern Unions.
WASHINGTON, March 17.—The Senate Committee on Claims, in its report adverse to private claims which had been disallowed by the Southern Claims Commission on the ground of insufficient proof of loyalty of the claimant, says that there are nearly 9,000 of those rejected claims, involving an amount of more than $50,000,000. The committee does not deem it just or wise to open the door to this flood of claims, when no substantial or equitable reason is shown for so doing.

The Jeffersonville Levee.
WASHINGTON, March 17.—The House Committee on Civil Service Reform to-day referred the resolution of Mr. Browne (Ind.), directing an investigation into the conduct of certain employees of the House in connection with the improvement of the Ohio river at Jeffersonville, Ind., to a subcommittee consisting of Messrs. Blanchard, Mitchell and Farquhar. The subcommittee is merely to put the matter in proper shape for examination by the full committee. The clerk of the committee was instructed to notify J. M. Glass of Jeffersonville, at whose instigation the resolution was introduced, to appear before the committee as soon as possible.

AN ATROCIOUS CRIME.

ONE OF THE MOST COLD-BLOODED MURDERS.

Ever Committed in Tennessee—A Young Married Woman Killed by a Mulatto.

(SPECIAL TO THE APPEAL.)
CHATTANOOGA, TENN., March 17.—One of the most atrocious and cold-blooded murders ever committed in the State occurred near Loudon, Tenn., to-day. When Thos. P. Gray, a prominent farmer, returned home about noon from attending a funeral a horrible spectacle met his eyes. Lying at full length upon the floor of her room was his young wife with her throat cut from ear to ear and her head filled with bullets. Her innocent little babe was sitting near its mother's head playing in a pool of blood. As soon as Mr. Gray recovered from the shock he gave the alarm and a posse was organized. It was soon discovered that a negro named John Gillespie had committed the terrible deed. About seven miles from Loudon he was overtaken by a young man named Gideon Gibbons. The negro did not obey the command to halt and Gibbons shot him through the back. Gillespie was then taken back to Sweetwater, where he was jailed. It is the prevailing opinion that he attempted to outrage Mrs. Gray, and when she resisted he cut her throat and fired a charge of bullets into her head. The entire action where the crime occurred is in a frenzy of excitement, and the black brute will be lynched to-night.

Later, at 10:30 o'clock a mob of 200 persons got possession of Gillespie. He made a full confession of the crime and will surely hang to-night.

Saved His Life by His Presence of Mind.

(SPECIAL TO THE APPEAL.)
CHATTANOOGA, TENN., March 17.—To-night while a leading wholesale grocer, W. B. Mitchell, was sitting at his desk in his store, he heard a heavy breathing in the room and supposing it was some animal that had crept in, glanced casually around and beheld a negro within ten feet of him hidden behind the desk with a double-barrel shotgun in his grasp, leveled at the gentleman's head. The negro did not know he was discovered. Mr. Mitchell, with wonderful coolness, proceeded to open his mail, then carefully left the store. He immediately notified the police, and the negro was captured in the building. He confessed that he was sent there by two professional crooks to remain there until the stars were looked, and then to let them in. A heavy burglary was then to be committed. The store is being watched for the principals.

THE CHESS CHAMPIONSHIP.

Steinitz Adds Another Game to His Score.

NEW ORLEANS, La., March 17.—The eighteenth game of the world's chess championship match, between Steinitz and Zukertort, began a few minutes after 1 o'clock this afternoon. The game was begun with the Ray Lopez opening. Steinitz playing the white men, Zukertort the black. At 6 o'clock forty-four moves having been made, the players took a recess until 7:30 o'clock. Steinitz had the advantage in position. Resuming, the game was ended in five moves by Steinitz and four by Zukertort, the latter resigning on his forty-fifth move. Time—Steinitz, 2 hours and 45 minutes; Zukertort, 2 hours and 10 minutes. This makes the record stand: Steinitz, seven games; Zukertort, five. Zukertort says his thirty-ninth move, which was wholly unsound, was an oversight. He is not looking well, and says he did not sleep a minute last night.

BUSINESS TROUBLES.

Made an Assignment.

PEORIA, ILL., March 17.—Harlan P. Tracy, the well-known banker of Elmwood, made an assignment to W. A. Clinch, W. S. Barber and Thomas Clinch. The estimated indebtedness is $60,000, and the property assigned, consisting of a paper mill and real estate at the mouth of the Mississippi and $40,000 in bills, receivable and stock in the Peoria Cattle Company, is valued at $93,000.

The Ward-Warner Suit.

NEW YORK, March 17.—Hamilton Cole, referee in the action brought by George C. Holt, the assignee for the benefit of the creditors of Ferdinand Ward against Wm. S. Warner, filed his report with the clerk of the Supreme Court to-day. It is in favor of Julien T. Davies, the receiver of the firm of Grant & Ward, and finds that the payment of all claims by Ward, either his individual check or by the checks of Grant & Ward, upon the so-called contract business were fraudulent and void as against the defendant Julien T. Davies as receiver, and that Warner must pay over to Davies as receiver all moneys received by him from Ward over and above the amount paid by him to Ward. This sum the referee finds to be $1,255,361.34, which, with interest thereon from May 6, 1884, $140,391.20, makes the total amount to be received $1,395,752.54. He further directs that the defendants Warner and his English executors and deliver within thirty days from the filing of this judgment such deeds of conveyance, release and quit claim as may be necessary to satisfy the judgment.

THE IRISH LAND SCHEME.

VIEWS OF MESSRS. CHAMBERLAIN AND TREVELYAN.

The Scottish Church Question in the Commons—Practical Joke on Michael Davitt.

LONDON, March 17.—The News says that Messrs. Chamberlain and Trevelyan have written Mr. Gladstone a statement of their views on the land scheme. The Cabinet council has consequently decided to postpone any action likely to lead to discussion. It is an honest effort without assembly on the part of the majority and minority to arrive at the best solution for the welfare of Ireland. In the meantime, both Mr. Chamberlain and Mr. Trevelyan will continue discharging their official duties. Mr. Trevelyan has invited the Scotch members of Parliament to a conference to-morrow on the Crofters question. Mr. Chamberlain agrees to giving Ireland home rule, but is opposed to buying out landlords. The present crisis will probably postpone the date of Mr. Gladstone's statement to Parliament on the Irish question.

IN THE COMMONS.

Mr. Robert Bannatyne Finlay, Liberal member for Inverness, moved, in the House of Commons, this afternoon, the second reading of his Church of Scotland Bill. This proposal disestablishment and favors such reform of the church as would practically amount to reconstruction. It aims, for instance, at removing all those obstacles which now exist to a reunion of the Free Church and the United Presbyterian with the Established Church. The Scotch Radicals were determined in their opposition to the measure, and in this they received the assistance of the Parnellites. Indeed, many Parnellite members carried their eloquence to speak in the provinces to-night, in order to be present in the House. After a prolonged discussion Mr. Finlay's motion was rejected by a vote of 202 to 177.

Practical Joke on Michael Davitt.

LONDON, March 17.—A practical joke upon Michael Davitt was perpetrated last night by some of the students at Oxford University. Mr. Davitt had last evening delivered a lecture at Oxford, and was invited to occupy the night a room of a graduate in one of the colleges. Some of the students, when they learned this, were much incensed, and a security force was sent to the room. Mr. Davitt was compelled to reach the ground this morning by letting himself out through the window with the sheets from his bed.

Outrages in Ireland.

CORK, March 17.—At the Assizes to-day Justice O'Brien said that the moonlight outrages continued, but they appeared to be rather for the purpose of robbery than for political purposes.

CORINTH, MISS.

Reception by Dr. and Mrs. Rawlings Young.

(SPECIAL TO THE APPEAL.)

CORINTH, MISS., March 17.—The social event of the season was the reception given by Dr. and Mrs. Rawlings Young at the Cox House last night, when the doctor celebrated his fortieth anniversary as a practicing physician, by inviting a few old-time friends to a supper. The table was spread with rare good taste, and the room decorated in a handsome and appropriate manner. The supper was all that could be desired for and was a most enjoyable affair.

The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. L. Seales, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. B. Sanford, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Hyneman, Mr. and Mrs. George S. Inge, Mr. and Mrs. A. Rubel, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Warner, Mr. and Mrs. George Cox, Mrs. Maggie Johns, Mrs. A. McWilliam, Mrs. E. G. Whitmore, Mrs. R. McWilliams, Miss Luella Duncan, Miss Lorena Whitmore, Miss Lucy Cox, Capt. T. P. Young, Judge W. H. Kilpatrick, J. M. Martin, Esq., R. M. Reynolds, Will B. Henderson, W. E. Patton, B. S. Whitfield, Will Evans.

All the above unite in wishing that the Doctor may live to celebrate another thirty years of work in his calling. Altogether, it was one of the most elegant and recherche affairs that has occurred in Corinth for many a day.

BIRMINGHAM, ALA.

The Pratt Company Extending Its Works—Heavy Loan Negotiated.

(SPECIAL TO THE APPEAL.)

BIRMINGHAM, ALA., March 17.—Messrs. J. J. McCombs and Theodore Adams, capitalists, the one from New York and the other from Philadelphia, are here. It is almost officially announced that McCombs has contracted with the management of the Pratt Coal and Iron Company to lead that concern $1,200,000. The obvious purpose of the transaction is the Pratt people's plan to build iron furnaces, and probably a steel plant and extensive pipe works.

A special to the Age from Jasper, Walker county, says D. Birchfield died yesterday from the effects of a blow given him about a month ago by a neighbor named Mose Cox. The latter was drunk, and Birchfield was trying to get him under control, when he picked up a chair and struck him over the head with it. Both were men of good standing, and Cox was hardly ever drunk.

The Eight Hour Movement.

GRAND RAPIDS, MICH., March 17.—The Widdellcomb furniture factory, employing 500 to 600 men, adopted the eight-hour system voluntarily to-day. Nelson, Matter & Co. will soon follow, and the indications are that every manufacturing concern in the city will be working only eight hours a day by May without any demand from the Knights of Labor.

HAVE given Tongaline a thorough trial in several cases of neuritis and acute rheumatism. Am pleased with results. It is urged by any other remedy for that.

W. F. FLEMING, G. M. D., George own, Texas.

DIED.

ARNOLD.—In this city, Wednesday, March 17, 1886, HENRY F. ARNOLD, aged twenty-three years.
